2007 Leadership & Innovation Summit Presented by Stuart Levine

Stuart Levine & Associates has teamed up with the Executive Council of New York to present the 2007 Leadership & Innovation Summit. The two will co-host the event, to take place April 11, 2007 at The University Club in New York City.

The summit will utilize Stuart's latest book, CUT TO THE CHASE: AND 99 OTHER RULES TO LIBERATE YOURSELF AND GAIN BACK THE GIFT OF TIME, to help attendees learn how to:

- Increase Your Productivity by Utilizing Your Time More Effectively
- Discipline Yourself: Think Clearly, Focus, and Plan Ahead
- Perform Productively to Achieve Faster and Better Business Results
- Know What's Important and Communicate it Effectively
- Build Your Career While Balancing Your Life
- Meet Smarter: Get More Out of Meetings
- Renew Yourself and Make Room for All Parts of Your Life

Other speakers will include:

- Stephen Rubin, president & publisher Doubleday/Broadway
- Dr. Jon R. Cohen, former Chief Medical Officer, North Shore-LIJ Health System, former candidate for Lt. Governor, New York
- Theresa A. Bischoff, CEO, American Red Cross in Greater New York
- Josh Weston, Honorary Chairman of the Board, Automatic Data Processing, Inc..
- Sam Williamson, VP, Systems and Technology Group, Americas, IBM

CUT TO THE CHASE is an invaluable resource to help readers make the most effective use of their limited time. As Levine says, "Cutting to the chase is about more than getting to the point. It's about defining your purpose...knowing your world...concentrating...and ultimately, it's about understanding that your time is, quite literally, your life."

Stuart R. Levine is Chairman and CEO of Stuart Levine & Associates, LLC, an international consulting and leadership development company. Previously, Levine was the CEO of Dale Carnegie & Associates where he co-authored the international bestseller The Leader in You. He is also the author of the national bestseller, The Six Fundamentals of Success. He has appeared on NBC-TV's the Today show, CNN, CNBC, and PBS and has been profiled in the New York Times and USA Today.
